ABOUT ME

I specialize in web design and front-end development. I really like the clean design and having fun with new technologies. I am an infinite learner, tester, writer. I got into JavaScript frameworks with Vue.js as a framework of choice. It seems fun. Besides that, I also did a demo or two with Laravel. I work mainly in VS Code but as I don't limit my interests I have a good knowledge of Adobe CS, Figma, JIRA, Confluence and a variety of apps that prove helpful during creations. I have more than 6 years of freelance experience as a designer/developer and about 3 years of full-time contract in the remote company. This just proves my ability to stay in line with daily remote routine - calls, standups, commitment, and contribution. I have experience working in agile teams. I believe good design is within a grasp, for this reason, I like to think beyond colors and layout to consider the motivations of users.

WORK EXPERIENCE

GREEN HERRING STUDIO

Web Designer and Developer, 2012-current

Here begins my freelance experience as a Web Designer and Developer. For fun, as a volunteer or for commercial clients I prepared a variety of works from posters and illustrations, through animations and flash banners, to responsive websites and some branding designs.

FLEX FUNDING

Web Designer and Developer, 2016-current

I am responsible for development of company website, branding materials for web and print, making graphics for advertising and social media. I work mostly with HTML/CSS, JS, PHP (WordPress) and in Adobe Creative Suite.

CITI INTERNATIONAL

Database Analyst, 2014-2016

I worked on object-relational databases and reporting with Visual Basic and SQL Reporting Services.
